

Sermon notes: Sunday 28th April 19
The Miraculous Catch of Fish

Read Luke 5:1-11 and John 21:1-17

1. “Leave me, Lord, for I am a sinful man.” (Luke 5:8). Why did Peter say this? What made him feel this way? Do you sometimes feel like Peter?
2. “Don’t be afraid!” Jesus is always telling people not to be afraid. Why was Peter afraid? What makes us afraid? How can Jesus help us when we are afraid?
3. “From now on you will catch men!” What did Jesus mean? Does Jesus expect us to “catch men”? What does this mean?
4. “They left everything and followed him.” Are there some things we need to leave in order to follow Jesus?
5. Why do you think Jesus performed a miracle after his resurrection which was so similar to the one at the start of his ministry?
6. What would the bread and fish remind the disciples of?
7. What would the charcoal fire remind Peter of?
8. How had Peter changed since he first met Jesus?
9. In what way had he not changed?
10. How might an experience of failure change us?
11. Might it make us more or less effective in ministering to others?

Sermon notes: Sunday 28th April 19
The Miraculous Catch of Fish

Read Luke 5:1-11 and John 21:1-17

1. “Leave me, Lord, for I am a sinful man.” (Luke 5:8). Why did Peter say this? What made him feel this way? Do you sometimes feel like Peter?
2. “Don’t be afraid!” Jesus is always telling people not to be afraid. Why was Peter afraid? What makes us afraid? How can Jesus help us when we are afraid?
3. “From now on you will catch men!” What did Jesus mean? Does Jesus expect us to “catch men”? What does this mean?
4. “They left everything and followed him.” Are there some things we need to leave in order to follow Jesus?
5. Why do you think Jesus performed a miracle after his resurrection which was so similar to the one at the start of his ministry?
6. What would the bread and fish remind the disciples of?
7. What would the charcoal fire remind Peter of?
8. How had Peter changed since he first met Jesus?
9. In what way had he not changed?
10. How might an experience of failure change us?
11. Might it make us more or less effective in ministering to others?